

Getting Started

Hi! If you've never worked with a marketing expert before, you may be wondering what to expect. And I'm guessing that like many of my clients over the past 17 years, you are likely feeling overwhelmed by the multitudes of on- and off-line marketing, social media, advertising, communications, and PR options available.

Sound familiar? I get it.

You're a pro at what you do, and you know your craft, but you're not sure where to start your marketing journey to make your business a success. Or, maybe you've been trying to juggle it all on your own and spending too much time and budget but not seeing results.

That's where I can help.

I work with clients in a number of flexible ways depending on your unique situation. My pricing is fully transparent as seen on my services page. With clear deliverables and ongoing communications during our time together, rest assured you will never be billed for anything you didn't pre-approve in writing.

Let's chat.

After our initial consult, if we're a good fit, you'll receive my On Boarding Guide. This guide was created so you know what to expect from our engagement and how best to work with a marketing team.
